CIA HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM
RELEASE IN FULL 1995

18 OCT 1963

Mr. George A. Morgan card
Director, Foreign Service Institute
Department of State
Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Mr. Morgan:

The Agency is very favorably impressed with the success of the Foreign Service Institute's Senior Seminar in Foreign Policy. Our graduates of the course have made it clear that the Senior Seminar effectively attains its objective of providing broad advanced professional education in foreign policy and foreign affairs.

Because of its lasting benefits, our Agency wishes not only to continue to be represented but I am hopeful that our invitational quota can be increased to two students annually. Would this be possible, beginning with the academic year 1964-65?

Arrangements are under way for the current student body and faculty to visit our Headquarters Building on Friday, 15 November, as part of their regular academic program. It would be our pleasure to have you accompany them and spend the day with us, too.

Sincerely yours,

(signed) Lyman B. Kirkpatrick
